I don't wanna go don't want to waste this time I just want to stay with you and let the time fly by Can I ask for more?
a little more for me I'm going to need it for the time that I will be away and I've forgotten everything Thinking more importantly because I don't want to go
I want to stay home with you So much for this time apart and I wish we could go back to how things used to be before What's the mileage now?
a steady pace I see, because there's a part of me that hasn't been there for a while and I am hollow... I am bare But I'll keep going with despair because I just want to go I want to come home to you And I lost touch with myself and I'm sorry
I hope we can work it out somehow again Never thought I would feel this hollow never thought that the worst would follow Never wanted to see this side of me I never wanted it to be
