Leaving behind the worst my ship sets sail today
Heads up here come the words
I have now to say
Just trying to make the best of a good time
I'm taking control of my life
So long, so long? I don't belong
I'm leaving right now and not coming back Too long, too long? been dragging it on I'm not getting off the right track
Miserable everyday
I finally saw the light
I'm going all the way
the feeling is so right
Just maybe on my own I can find out right now what life is all about
So get on the right track
