Here we go again feelings come and go yeah,
She's got it going on and now im running circles,
Its on my head so baby,
I was thinking maybe
If i go back and change things,
Would this drive me crazy,

The thing you said I Dont know
What to say but it doesn't matter anyway
I don't know what to think
Cuz she might not even feel the same,
im thinking if I go back I could replace this empty space,

I wanna go back here we go,
And now were flying back in time,
My heart still beats in the speed of light,
Iv been searching through my mind,
To find the map that will take me back in time,

Step it back then take me to a place when,
Summer nights and weekends party on the streets then,
Take my hand so baby I was thinking maybe,
If I go back and change things would this drive me crazy,

The thing you said I don't know
What to say but it doesn't matter anyway
I don' know what to think
Cuz she might not even feel the same,
Thinking if I go back I could replace this empty space,

I wanna go back here we go,
And now were flying back in time,
My heart still beats in the speed of light,
Iv been searching through my mind,
To find the map that will take me back in time,

I close my eyes just to be with you,
But I don't wake up because I know it isn't true,
Iv been searching through my mind,
To find the map that will take me back in time,

I never thought that it would be easy,
But baby im asking for you to believe me
That you were the one that iv always dreamed of
So take my hand and we will be gone,

I wanna go back I-i-i-i
I've been searching through my mind
To find a map that will take me back in time,

And now were flying back in time,
My heart still beats in the speed of light,
I've been searching through my mind,
To find the map that will take me back in time,

I close my eyes just to be with you,
But I don't wake up because I know it isn't true,
I've been searching through my mind,
To find the map that will take me back in time.
