Oh what a shame all my loves gone, to waste so I will spend the night alone. Was I just blind, just blinded by your lust, I let you deeper in, deeper in my trust. I was captured yeah but now, but now i..I am done. With being vulnerable I don't need any one, to make me feel wanted. I'm fine on my own. Love spells and illusions, both games I'll never win, when loving only hides the truth under my skin.. love spells and illusions, both games ill never win, when loving only hides the truth
under my skin.You'll never give into a thing, I wanted you to love me, I'm a fool to think that you would fall for me, was I just blinded by your lust, I let you deeper in my trust, I was captured, yeah but now I am done. Love spells and illusions, both games I'll never win, when loving only hides the truth under my skin. Love spells and illusions, but games I'll never win, when loving only hides the truth under my skin. Give my heart to the shore waves pulling away. hands will turn to rust, you'll remember the day, you held gold but you gave it away
With being vulnerable I don't need any one to make me feel wanted I'm fine on my own. Love spells and illusions, both games I'll never win, when loving only hides the truth under my skin.. love spells and illusions, both games I'll never win, when loving only
under my skin..
