Running fast, I can breath no more
Set me free from my breaking thoughts

Crying inside for no one hears me hide my feelings and I need to escape

Running fast, I can't reach the end
Take me out of this tunnel,
I will fall down

Running fast, I can breath no more

Crying inside for no one hears me
hide my feelings and I need to escape

Need to reach ... the end holding on to my shattered hopes trying to heal my breaking thoughts

Breaking thoughts....
