i can feel my order splitting through the heart ?dumping need and sending sickness to the gut? yeah now i'm feeling lovable to the point where noon is impossible paranoia slowly working up your spine won't be long before its ruined in the night still don't seem right i kicked down the shrub before it recognize it it's burning from the start it's tearing me apart it's blocking all the detours pushing alcohol to heart sending metal to the brain yeah yeah yeah yeah minute to minute, hour to hour i'm not the same
i wanna break
ever since i could remember thats the way i've been now i'm giving it up to the night and the moment the friends that i have and the ringing in my ears never made me nervous i saw a comfort in the darkness there's something through the light ?don't need questions, who knows in my mind? maybe i'll never figure it out but then again that's the only reason i i'm burning from the start i'm tearing it apart i'm blocking all the detours 1 2 3 4
never made me nervous
the miles on my feet through the pain
