Please lie to me
For just one day
Forget about the things
You hate about me
Please lie to me
And be the one
To have the role of my dreams
In your hands

Open your arms
While you draw your best smile
And shake
Everything in my world
You would pick me some flowers
I would cook you some breakfast
Dreaming alive if i only had you

Please lie to me
Please make my day
And do crazy things
That i can't say
Please lie to me
And do pretend
To care for all my dreams
Always
