Don't stop wishing for a clear sunny day
I know you're brave enough to find your way
Don't cease believing
Just keep on walking through the light
And I'll be waiting for the brand new you

Start to share the colors in your life
And fill your heart with love and kindness now
Start over again,
Start over again with you
Yeeaaaahhh yeah .. huum..

The skies and storms
Will find a way out of your life
And I know we're ready to draw a smile

Start to share the colors in your life
And fill the world with love and kindness now
Start over again,
Start over again
Start over again! with you
Start over again! with you.
