woah yeah stop hiding out in the shadows scared show the world you exist don't lock yourself in the darkness the world is so much brighter than this ya if you never take shock you never gonna win so turn it all around and break down the walls woah come on and give it everything you can take a chance make a stand and break break break break down the walls woah break down the walls woah break down the walls woah come on and take a chance make a stand and break break break break down the walls
