Yo, my mind is going crazy
Visualizing greatness
But I'm always interrupted by the problems and reality
It's challenging
To balance out what really life is
With all of our dreams, and all our big fantasies
Or maybe I just might be scared to face responsibility
So I wander to a place in my head that only I know
I send out invitations to the world but no one want to go
So I close my eyes
Express my feelings in the studio
'Cause everybody wants me to stop it
They wonder why I make music without getting a profit
And I could go on about how music makes me feel
But since when do you got to make music for record deals
And until that time comes
We'll continue to make music for the love and the fun
Enjoy the music while not involving business
And when we reach success you will all be a witness

Life is a pain
We got dreams you know we hold on to them
Life is a struggle
We got dreams you know we hold on to them
Life is a pain
We got dreams you know we hold on to them
Life is a struggle
We got dreams you know we hold on to them

Let the lyric hit the rhythm
Head nod, you better recognize Flipping the syllable, listen to the beat rise
I'm just another guy on a journey, let me tell 'em
The stories of a young mind, of a young fella with big dreams
But listen boy, you oughta dream more
Listen to the dream when he, when he hit the record and clap for him
And clap for the encore
The glass was half empty, I told him to keep pouring
One love for me

One more, that's peace
Mic check, one, two
I paint the world with my speech
We be, uh
Authentic Sounds, most definitely
Two MC's kicking the soul in the 16
It's me
Exceptional kid
Excellent with the fire in my heart that I let out when I spit
I let the track stand, singing here, I exist
I'ma keep marching, put a little dust on my kicks
It's like this

Life is a pain
We got dreams you know we hold on to them
Life is a struggle
We got dreams you know we hold on to them
Life is a pain
We got dreams you know we hold on to them
Life is a struggle
We got dreams you know we hold on to them
