Hold me down, not not again
You've got me feeling like I'm dying
Medicate before I suffocate,
I'm getting ready come and try me.
Eradicate my insides tonight
So I'm empty like the bottle that holds me down.

Fight for me
Scream for my new creation
Fight for me
Explain why we're invisible.

Don't push me around with your conventional.
I'm a fraction of the unintentional.
I wanna fight I wanna feel heroic,
Pistols drawn and poised to stare me down.
Last breath but my hearts still beating,
We play the game but never conceding.
I wanna rage I wanna feel the moment,
Burning inside of me, determined to set me free.

I'm fired up and breaking boundaries
Defiance through the chemicals in my lungs
The panic starts with the ordinary
A concoction of the rhythms flowing off my tongue
Another night that I can feel like I'm under control
An automatic plan to conquer the world

Fight for me
Scream for my new creation
Fight for me
Explain why we're invisible.

Don't push me around with your conventional.
I'm a fraction of the unintentional.
I wanna fight I wanna feel heroic,
Pistols drawn and poised to stare me down.
Last breath but my hearts still beating,
We play the game but never conceding.
I wanna rage I wanna feel the moment,
Burning inside of me, determined to set me free.

Destroy the doubts of those who judge me
And build a bridge to find myself
And all the world will soon be singing
Raise your fists and start believing

Don't push me around with your conventional.
I'm a fraction of the unintentional.
I wanna fight I wanna, I wanna feel heroic.
Last breath but my hearts still beating,
We play the game but never conceding.
I wanna rage I wanna feel the moment,
Burning inside of me, determined to set me free.
