Tonight

You and I, I had it all worked out,
We were young, but we had our feet on the ground,
Then you had to turn it upside down, suddenly You'd tell me I'm your princess, and on the surface it seemed correct,
When you took me out to show your friends, we were so perfect,
Tell me what's perfect

Because when you took me home, it was so outta control,
I wanna get out of here tonight, and I'm sorry if you wanna fight

I won't cry, 'coz you, you're not worth my tears,
And tonight, I'm getting out of here,
'Coz tonight, tonight, it feels so right, tonight,
I wanna come alive for the first time
I've got a hold of my life, I wanna know what that feels like

It's a shame, I couldn't turn around once more,
And come crawling back to your front door,
But I'm sick of being left outside,
Shouldn't there be a doormat where I'm Sitting? I think something just kicked in,
And I think it's time I left this House full of lullabies, and lies, oh, whoa

I won't say sorry for the times, I listened to your alibis,
And hid when tears fell from my eyes, but no, not for you tonight

I won't cry, 'coz you, you're not worth my tears,
And tonight, I'm getting out of here,
'Coz tonight, tonight, it feels so right, tonight,
I wanna come alive for the first time
I've got a hold of my life, I wanna know what that feels
like

Oh, what I thought, and what we were...

I swore that I'd never let this happen
Never thought I would learn this lesson
No you're never gonna mess with me again
No, never again
'Coz I didn't see how much pain I was in
I didn't see that I was sinking
I'd hate to think someone's going through that again,
I wanna just forget about it
I didn't see how much pain I was in
I didn't see that I was sinking
I won't be doing that again
No, no, not again

You won't see me, tonight,
I don't wanna see you, tonight
Oh...

I won't cry, 'coz you, you're not worth my tears,
And tonight, I'm getting out of here,
'Coz tonight, tonight, it feels so right, tonight,
I wanna come alive for the first time
I've got a hold of my life, oh...
Tonight, oh...
