Evidence is all but found
Your bullshit scheme, the words got out
When it falls, it falls apart
And I'm afraid i've come up short
As promises sneak past me once again

But baby breathe, Baby breathe
Five seconds is enough to die tonight

And i've got my hands around your throat
Light me up and let me go
I've never felt so low
Light me up and let me go, Light me up and let me go

You never listened when I said slow down
I should've settled when you shot me out
You say you're friends, I say its true
Are you just friends when he's inside of you
Granted i'm gonna blame myself again

But baby breathe, Baby breathe
Five seconds is enough to die tonight

And i've got my hands around your throat
Light me up and let me go
I've never felt so low
Light me up and let me go, Light me up and let me go

We were never more than love
We were never more than lust
We were never anything cause you're a whore

And i've got my hands around your throat
Light me up and let me go
I've never felt so low
Light me up and let me go, Light me up and let me go
