Let me get this right
What's mine is yours and yours is yours
I'm alone tonight
With solid walls and locking doors
I'm insecure but confident
Scars don't fade, they're permanent
Do you thing you're doing what is right

I'm losing out on dreams
And broken promises
I'll listen to my friends
How was your regret
When you set your trap i'll never fall again

Story lines
(Pages stick together)
On the solid lines
(We can cross this together)
Its a perfect lie
If i say you don't matter
(Say you don't matter)
Story lines
(Pages stick together)
On the solid lines
(We can cross this together)
Its a perfect lie
If i say you don't matter
(Say you don't matter)

What's like to breathe
You took the air right out of me
I'm never looking back
Oh I'm never looking back
You're so secure with what you said
All boys and all the sex
Do you think you're doing what is right

I'm losing out on dreams

And broken promises
I'll listen to my friends
How was your regret
When you set your trap i'll never fall again

Story lines
(Pages stick together)
On the solid lines
(We can cross this together)
Its a perfect lie
If i say you don't matter
(Say you don't matter)
Story lines
(Pages stick together)
On the solid lines
(We can cross this together)
Its a perfect lie
If i say you don't matter
(Say you don't matter)

Three shots and my head starts spinning
Three more so you feel more distant
I couldn't tell you what you look like now
A sudden focus and I'm on the ground

I tried to turn around
But I'm lost and cant get out
And i tried to turn around
But I'm lost without you
I tried to turn around
But I'm lost and cant get out
I'll never turn around

Story lines
(Pages stick together)
On the solid lines
(We can cross this together)
Its a perfect lie
If i say you don't matter
(Say you don't matter)
Story lines
(Pages stick together)
On the solid lines
(We can cross this together)
Its a perfect lie
If i say you don't matter
(Say you don't matter)
