I wanna speak but can't describe
I wanna see through your disguise
'Cause everytime you're near
You leave me cold

Pain
My salvation
I'm not afraid so fuck you and your apathy
Fear
And frustration
You give me nothing
So take back all your sympathy
Break
This is carnage
Destroying all my strength and all my dignity
Snap
Goes your backbone
If your addicted to pain then come and get some more

You can't kill me
Motherfucker
You can't own me
Motherfucker
This is a matter of pride
I'm not satisfied

You can't kill me!

I wanna speak but can't describe
I wanna see through your disguise
'Cause everytime you're near
You leave me cold

Stop
Your complaining
So sick of hearing your shit so fucking sick of it
Pain
Isn't fading
I'm wanna beat you down and take a piece of you

You can't kill me
Motherfucker
You can't own me
Motherfucker
This is a matter of pride

I'm not satisfied
You can't kill me!

I wanna speak but can't describe
I wanna see through your disguise
'Cause everytime you're near
You leave me cold

I wanna speak but can't describe
I wanna see through your disguise
'Cause everytime you're near
You leave me cold

I wanna speak but can't describe
I wanna see through your disguise
"Cause everytime you're near, you leave me...

Oh!, Oh!, Oh!, Oh!

You can't kill me
Motherfucker
You can't own me
Motherfucker
This is a matter of pride
I'm not satisfied
You can't kill me!

I wanna speak but can't describe
I wanna see through your disguise
'Cause everytime you're near
You leave me cold

I wanna speak but can't describe
I wanna see through your disguise
'Cause everytime you're near
You leave me cold
