You gotta change your evil ways baby before i stop loving you you gotta change baby every word that i say is true you gotta a bad habit for lying this way baby change your evil ways i can't keep myself shut up for one more day cause you got me running and hiding all over town

you got me sneaking and peeping you're running me down, i can't go on lord knows you gotta change baby, baby your evil ways baby, baby when i come home baby, the house is dark and my pots are cold you're running around baby with jean or joan and who knows who you gotta bad habit like a run in train

i have lost my will to play look me up another day

and running you down, this can't go on lord knows your gotta change baby baby your evil ways baby, baby

you got me running and hiding
you got me sneaking and peeping
you're running me down im getting tired of waiting and fooling around for someone who won't make me feel like a clown baby change your evil ways (x4)

you got me running and hiding

you're running me down I'm tired of waiting and fooling around
this can go on
