You've been a prince among the damned
Surrounded by empty shells
A monarch in a dark paradise
Carryin out the echoes of the fallen

Oh tremble not thy heart
Though you beat in the shadows of death
You've been a prince
You'll always be
Now embrace your end with pride

The sands of time is running low
The sun is dawning on you
Your own shadow has left you alone
Your time on earth is through

Erase the pain
Erase the filth
Cease the devil
Unleash the dawn
You've been a prince
You'll always be
Now embrace your end with pride

The sands of time is running low
The sun is dawning on you
Your own shadow has left you alone
Your time on earth is through

Erase the pain
Erase the filth
Cease the devil
Unleash the dawn
You've been a prince
You'll always be
Now embrace your end with pride
