"Be My Witness"

Would you tell me, if I caused you pain?
Would it shock you baby if I said I felt the same?
Would you share with me, some of your doubt?
Would you let me help you, if I could help you out?

I couldn't give you, all that you wanted.
I couldn't even give you half of what you wanted if I wanted to.

Be my Witness.
Be my Bride.
I'm on the edge of something,
That I can't hide.

Would you go there, if I go there too?
Would you give me all your love if I gave all mine to you?
Would you come back if I called your name?
But it won't shock me baby if you say you feel the same.

I couldn't give you, all that you wanted.
I couldn't even give you half of what you wanted if I wanted to.

Be my Witness.
Be my Bride.
I'm on the edge of something,
That I can't hide.

Be my Witness.
Be my Bride.
I'm on the edge of something,
I'm on your side.
