"In The Heart Of A Down Class Man"

Now is the time to redeem those black souls
Into a peaceful brand...
Or get out!
Can you tell me where to looking for?
Can you tell me where looking now for the answers?
Walking out every morning
With some questions that seems to grow with no answers.
There's no love having an empty pocket
There's no blessings going through any moments
There's no love for some people in this world.
Can you tell me what to find for?
Anything that could fix my way to the answers
Or the solutions for a down class man.
No vision, no horizon, no tomorrow
If you think that everything comes overnight
With no work!
Sit straight and wait a hundred more.
Now is the time
Yesterday is gone.
