You make me walk and look beyond
Everything that can be said in silence;
That in each and every touching
Make out a new world rising.

Awaken I can realized you
Asleep I'm dreaming about you;
And when you keep so close to me
Your arms become my shelter.

Chorus:

Letter of love
You took me higher
With your love and charming happiness
With the way you are;
So special you have to see beyond
You are my force and strength
Supportive one, My shoulder.

You my love, my friend, my lover
My wish, and my dream love;
You fulfill my deepest heartbeats
Deep in pleasure, something beautiful.

Without your touch i imagine you
When I was sleeping i felt you;
You move me far from over
The home of desire your kisses.
