Welcome to the end of everything
That's you and this is it
It's your last day on easy street
That you took for granted
Time to prop your fucking eyes open
Splash some water on your face and suck it up
And stare at the mirror
You just lost all your choices
And now it's over
She was the best thing that ever happened to you
That's just fine, that will do
Let it burn
That's just fine, that will do
Let it fall apart
Let it walk away from you
Let it die
Let's make something dangerous
Didn't get to look her in the face
There's nothing romantic about it
Let's make something new
There's nothing
Let's make something that will burn
You did everything wrong and now it's over
You don't deserve it
Best thing that ever happened to you
Live up to it.
