Everything came on way too soon Feelings flooded in like a monsoon Thought I was ready and you thought you weren't Played a million games with my heart
Only to learn that trust's the only way to start Tied up in logic, never works

I've been trying to forget, trying not to let it happen but nothing helps We've been trying to let it go but I just don't know if we trust ourselves

This is Dangerous
We can't control our hearts
We could force ourselves apart
but you know that wouldn't work
Are we trying to hide these feelings that we can't deny keeping them locked up safe inside outta fear of getting hurt?
What's love worth?
Whats love worth?

Threw ourselves right into the deep end
Too many questions is it possible to just be friends?
Not sure I even know myself
Should I, stop these feelings before they get stronger?
Can't ignore this question any longer
But acting on emotions I can help

If there's something you wanna say just tell me honestly I'm right here right now
So much I wanna do I'm telling you the truth I wont wait around

This is Dangerous
We can't control our hearts
We could force ourselves apart
but you know that wouldn't work
Are we trying to hide these feelings that we can't deny
keeping them locked up safe inside outta fear of getting hurt?

A disaster waiting to happen
Should we be sensible and stop this now?
If we let it slip out of our grasp then We'll always feel like we missed out
Time to know for sure, we have to make our minds up What you waiting for?
Can't help feeling

This is Dangerous
We can't control our hearts
We could force ourselves apart
but you know that wouldn't work
Are we trying to hide these feelings that we can't deny
keeping them locked up safe inside outta fear of getting hurt?
What's love worth?
Whats Love worth?
