Lyrics to I'm Sorry :

You said you wanted more than I could bring
More than birds can sing
You said you needed Time to find yourself
But you found someone else
You said I was your one and only
You said with me that you'd never be alone
And I drank in every lie
I am sorry... I am sorry
So here I'm apologising
but one question keeps on rising

Why... why?

We've closed this chapter; leave the title till the end...
"your lost and naive friend"
We've built this tower. You built the steps of sand
You don't care where I land
You're holding someone elses hand
You said I was you're one and only
You said with me that you'd never be lonely
And I drank in every lie
I am sorry... I am sorry
Here im apologising
but one question keeps on rising.
Why... tell me why
