It's well past midnight

And I'm awake with questions that won't

Wait for daylight

Separating fact from my imaginary fiction

On this shelf of my conviction

I need to find a place

Where You and I come face to face

Thomas needed

Proof that You had really risen

Undefeated

When he placed his fingers

Where the nails once broke Your skin

Did his faith finally begin?

I've lied if I've denied

The common ground I've shared with him

And I, I really want to know You

I want to make each day

A different way that I can show You how

I really want to love You

Be patient with my doubt

I'm just tryin' to figure out Your will

And I really want to know You still Nicodemus
Could not understand how You could
Truly free us
He struggled with the image
Of a grown man born again
We might have been good friends
Cuz sometimes I still question, too
How easily we come to You
No more campin' on the porch of indecision
No more sleepin' under stars of apathy
And it might be easier to dream
But dreamin's not for me
