oh there it is brewing deeply inside of me
such an evil philosophy if only the good die young then i know why i remain in this world so alive i'm surrounded by spider webs, insect eyes and all other follies of the wise i'm half-starving, half-satisfied, all the while choose between morality and style

pour us down the tubes
'cause you chose this
we're racing to confuse
it's not quite clear
who'll die, this time, inside

the freedom that we found the fantasy we found

such an evil philosophy
i'm surrounded by spider webs, insect eyes
choose between morality and style

it's not quite clear
but i'll...

you will, you will, you will fall you will (you will spin out) when i catch you you will spin out... (Mariah Carey vocals)
