Deceivers,
I am disgusted of your wretched kind,
Anomaly in a world of turmoil,
The truth has long been right before your eyes,
yet you choose to believe in a fake creed.

Never believe their lies!

A masterplan is executed disguised as fraternities, Overthrowing all the governments and lead them as
one whole,
Thus it begins, a new world order,
a plight, a plague, a reign of terror.
Affliction and woe are inflicted by your diety,
Another era of suffering.

They are lies, deceptions,
They cause this viral plague,
Will this be the end of mankind?

Deceivers,
I am disgusted of your wretched kind,
Anomaly in a world of turmoil,
The truth has long been right before your eyes,
yet you choose to believe in a fake creed.

Rue.

A masterplan is executed disguised as fraternities, Overthrowing all the governments and lead them as
one whole,
Thus it begins, a new world order,
a plight, a plague, a reign of terror.
