"The Man With The Gun"

I'm out of my senses
I'll only smile
The night I meet the man with the gun
Not that I'd be defenceless but I don't think I'll fight
The night I meet the man with the gun
Maybe I'll say What kept you?
I knew you would come I somehow didn't expect to Be spared for so long
Was it a whim of fortune
Or was I hard to find What's the routine of a man with a gun
Was it a kind of torture
Have you been out of town
What is like to a man with a gun
Maybe I'm glad to see you It's hard to believe but standing here beside you is such a relief
This is gonna hurt me
I do know why you've come but I got this feeling that it's already been done
