[VERSE 1:]

Do you want me for the weekend, or just for the day?

~Cause I know that you're here, but I know you won't stay.

I know I may not be funny, and I don't have that charm;

But I promise you honey, I will bring you no harm.

[CHORUS:]

But I guess you're free,

Free as eagles up high,

I guess you're free,

Now that you're no longer mine.

RAP

[Back to chorus]

[Saxophone solo with the 2nd verse]

[VERSE 2:]

Do you want me for the weekend, or just for the day?

~Cause I know that you're here, but I know you won't

stay.

Nobody knows it for real, but I know that it's true,

And baby I'm nothing if I don't have you.

(softer)

Nobody knows it for real, but I know that it's true.

And baby I'm nothing if I don't have you.

[Repeat x2]
