There was a boat in the sea I knew
Couldn't believe what I saw was true
I swam out through the waves
Caught it as it moved away

Said I stole you
Away
Said I stole you away
Next time I steal you away
Next time I steal you darlin will ya stay

There was a change in the way you breathed
Couldn't believe you had changed for me
And if you hear the sound of shooting stars protect your heart
Coz it burns back and turns back around

Said I stole you
Away
Said I stole you away
Next time I steal you away
Next time I steal you darlin will ya stay

I strum love of your soul
Coz I'm covered by believing by the things you see
He spent so long running but there's nothing coming
Turn around and run into me

Said I stole you
Away
Said I stole you away
Next time I steal you away
Next time I steal you darlin will ya stay
