See the sun so red now
It burns like my blood
But I can't promise you
Something more than you see

Sure I want to open doors
And reach you in your dream
But the sun has charmed you
So keep close to me now

And throw then what hides you
And let me enter
Your mouth is red, so open it
- but don't ask anything

And if you're scared - close your eyes hard
I'll carry you if you want oo
Because yours is yours, but ours is ours
And the time it's frozen

And if I'd die now
I'll drown in you
As naked as when I borned
- I'll give my life to you

And still the sun glows
But the night is closing in
It will be a storm tonight
- so stay close to me

And throw then what hides you
And let me enter
Your mouth is red, so open it
- but don't ask anything

And if you're scared - close your eyes hard
I'll carry you if you want oo
Because yours is yours, but ours is ours
And the time it's frozen

You hesitate when you see me
But the body was my shield

And every scar is the love to my life
You think I am dangerous
But look at me again
- I'll give you the life who still burns

And still the sun glows
But the night is closing in
It will be a storm tonight
- so stay close to me

And I will hold you
- But only if you want too
I'll take you through the storms
As long as I exist

And throw what hides you
And let me enter
Your mouth is red, open it
- but don't ask a thing
