The nothernlight is weakening in the sky, the shadows are on the hunt again.
Did you see a picture from another world, The light fell down as a threthening sword.

Did you cry when the horses got scared, scared by the heavens on fire. The night was thrown down, and everything dissapered.

I am here, I'm not afraid tonight, there are things that scares me more more. I am here, I will take you home tonight.

If you beomce eternal what happens then. When you have seen it all where will you go. If you understand it all there will be nothing left. The questions will die because of all the answers.

If you get scared by the sword that broke in two, if it was a dream you will awake.

If you wander in a frozen forrest, you will be quiet when the wind will die.

I am here, I'm not afraid tonight, there are things that scares me more more. I am here, I will take you home tonight.

Come to me now, nothing more will happen to you now, the biggest threat is from what you cant' see.

I am here, I'm not afraid tonight, there are things that scares me more more. I am here, I will take you
home tonight.

I am here, I'm not afraid tonight, there are things that scares me more more. I am here, I will take you home tonight.
