Her Tears Break My Heart

You left her for me
I stole you so easily
I showed you my charms
You ran to my arms
I thought it was meant to be

She cries for you all night long
Her pain I have caught
I took you away
But now I've got to pay
Her tears break my heart

It's wrong for you to treat me right
What about the one you left behind
You grow tired of me, alone I will be
It's wrong for you to treat me right

Why was I so vain
The gossips all speak my name
I thought I was strong to take what I want
I have nothing left but my shame

It's wrong for you to treat me right
What about the one you left behind
You grow tired of me, alone I will be
It's wrong for you to treat me right

It's wrong
It's wrong
It's wrong for you to treat me right
