So cruel

( Michael Grimes )

You're so cruel
You're evil hearted
You're mean inside
Don't want to stop what you started
Can't think of no one else
But your lonesome self
You're so cruel

It's been awile
Since they made you cry
It's been a long long while
Don't you wonder why
You're still so unkind
Do you think that we all are blind
You're so cruel

It's been awile
Since they made you cry
It's been a long long while
Don't you wonder why
You're still so unkind
Do you think that we all are blind
You're so cruel

You're still so unkind
Do you think that we all are blind
You're so cruel
