

Between Hopes & Dreams "All Alone"

Visit "All Alone" on MotoLyrics.com

Hey, how are you doing today?
It's been a while since we last talked, I'm afraid.
'cuz you held my heart and smashed it with a stone

So I left you all alone
And I left you all alone.

Do you remember yesterday?
When we used to live the songs we love
And you were the girl I was proud of
and we were flying higher then above

Before I left you all alone (it was)
Before I left you all alone.

And now when you turn I won't be there,
So if you wake I'll just be a lost affair
You'll open your eyes and just feel despair
You crossed the line, you lost me now i swear
