Well,
Lost, tired, unseen and used
With the feeling of fighting for nothing
I'm taking that risk

Here I am. With nothing to lose.
Im gasping for air, just to be dancing with her.
It's time for a change, it's time, time for a move

Frightend for what happend last time
With hope in fate. My pockets feel like holes
Her name under my skin, I'm tired to tell
I fucked up my life, I'm going to hell.

Here I am. With nothing to lose.
I'm gasping for air, just to be dancing with her.
It's time for a change, it's time, time for a move

And her blue eyes follow me trough day and night.
With all its waves crashing down on me.
