I'm better, than what I've become
I'm better, than what I've become

Theres a glint into my eyes, that never shone so bright.
'cause I'm here,
With you in my way.

I'm better, than what I've become
I'm better, than what I've become

An unseen sparkling light, to your gaze. And sometimes it's the reason I can't help but catch my breath.

Around you.

I hit the ground while you find piece
I loose my mind, you're on your knees
I become numb while you retire
I lose my hope while you inspire
