It's kinda hard being real in a world full of fake
Act upon the hood, gotta confiscate the hate
It's R.E.A.L. Remember Everybody Ain't Loyal
It's R.E.A.L. Remember Everybody Ain't Loyal

I tried to hold 'em down and show them fools a better life
Wrong feels right to them so those niggas live in trice
It's R.E.A.L. Remember Everybody Ain't Loyal
It's R.E.A.L. Remember Everybody Ain't Loyal

I cross my arms when I'm mad but that don't mean I'm stoppn'
I just give a fuck about that, the alcohol I had
It got me all stumbling, hardly can walk straight
Words kinda sluggish
Think I can't talk straight?
I still shine in a room full of darkness
Koz what's my heart
I ain't goin' so I'm heartless
I'm back to smockin' cigarettes and feelin' disappointed
Line a nigga up like their lines are on deployment
I'm from a hood full of niggas that would hate you
But I rep the town right so them niggas is grateful
Duke's on his way home and six still deported
Mike Booth got the troops, other blocks get extorted
John L way R, throw the packs away
They've been the same since J.B. passed away
I give you judging when you niggas ain't guarding
You can tell that I'm real, it really ain't hard

It's kinda hard being real in a world full of fake
Act upon the hood, gotta confiscate the hate
It's R.E.A.L. Remember Everybody Ain't Loyal
It's R.E.A.L. Remember Everybody Ain't Loyal

I tried to hold 'em down and show them fools a better
Wrong feels right to them so those niggas live in trice
It's R.E.A.L. Remember Everybody Ain't Loyal

It's R.E.A.L. Remember Everybody Ain't Loyal

Split a little peach, pockets on 2 Pac
It mean it got good juice, bitch what you got?
I survive in a game full of animals
Know hoes they each other, call 'em chicks cannibals
Niggas playin', they hate me
See me and say wussup
I'm not a rapper, I'm a gun clapper first Disloyal crew members, dumb members, the worst We was cool at first, they thought the grass was greener
So they switched sides and got the health infima
Now they back like 'N.O.R.E what the deal be?'
The most of niggas fowl, they try to kill me
I'm like 'fuck you faggot, now you're on your own'
Disloyalty shit, well that I don't condone
We aint' gotta speak but you should never change
You getting smaller in the world, I'm doing bigger things
What goes around comes around, like a wedding ring

It's kinda hard being real in a world full of fake
Act upon the hood, gotta confiscate the hate
It's R.E.A.L. Remember Everybody Ain't Loyal
It's R.E.A.L. Remember Everybody Ain't Loyal

I tried to hold 'em down and show them fools a better
Wrong feels right to them so those niggas live in trice
It's R.E.A.L. Remember Everybody Ain't Loyal
It's R.E.A.L. Remember Everybody Ain't Loyal
