I'm ringing, ringing like a song on the radio,
Pop, pop, pop the radio!
I'm ringing in your head like a radio
Pop, pop, pop the radio!

She said she didn't matter, didn't mean to make you cry
And now the river is rain don't ask why!
Cause I know you never could and you know why,
You can't rewind the time and make it right!
I've heard it all a thousand times,
It's too late to apologize,
I'm not crying for you, dying over me and you!
And now that I said goodbye, you can't give me out
tonight
Like a broken record over number one song!

Chorus: (x2)

I'm ringing in your head like a radio
Pop, pop, radio, radio, radio, radio, radio!
I'm ringing, ringing like a song on the radio,
Pop, pop, radio, radio, radio, radio, radio!

Don't you know that talk is cheap and me and you are history,
But I still hunt you from your airwaves and your daydreams.
Turn up your satellite, make your , fly,
You can't rewind the time and make it right!
I've heard it all a thousand times,
It's too late to apologize,
I'm not crying for you, dying over me and you!
And now that I said goodbye, you can't give me out
tonight
Like a broken record over number one song!

Chorus: (x2)

I'm ringing in your head like a radio
Pop, pop, radio, radio, radio, radio, radio!
I'm ringing, ringing like a song on the radio,
Pop, pop, radio, radio, radio, radio, radio!

No come on, you know that I'll never be turned
To the way that we were before!
So come on, I'm playing like a top ten, never,
I'm banging, banging on your radio!

Chorus: (x2)

I'm ringing in your head like a radio
Pop, pop, radio, radio, radio, radio, radio!
I'm ringing, ringing like a song on the radio,
Pop, pop, radio, radio, radio, radio, radio!
