Just In Case
I'm on a five day, permanent vacay
Who'll pay the bills, just in case I have to stay?
I got a big doubt/ I've got the dry mouth
Windows all locked, just in case I have to stay
And the only thing I look forward to
Are visits to me from you
I'm on a big hold, I've got my pants rolled
Thanks for the cards that I read everyday
They make the big rounds, they shine the light down
What would you say, just in case I have to stay?
And the only thing I look forward to
Are visits to me from you
And the only thing I look forward to
Are visits to me by you
