You miss me now ,That I'm not around
A little too late ,I move out of town You Finally find my heart after you dropped it on the ground
By I don't want it but just leave it in the lost and found
I cried you a river you told me to drown
I pour Champaign because it reminds me of that Now everywhere you go they ask about that nigga
Bizzy
I moved out Miami and got a condo In the city
I begged the 7 chances now I drive a 750
And since I let you go my life has changed so quickly
I should have left a long time ago truth is always there it just took a ill time to know
Like that new student sitting behind your row
Knew i always had it I just took the time to find a flow Now its impossible to find me though You can't even see me so how the fuck can reach me
Circle house studios bitches all in the tiki
I'm about to shake the game up like a can of graffiti
Me and these niggas fell off they can't reach me
So they just do the best thing they sub tweet me
We no longer friends you'll never been where I've been So chances of seeing each other again are very slim
But it's all good boy you gotta play pretend Overdraft flow I never watch what I spend
And with that on my mind I knew I was gonna win
Cause it ain't really shit if you can make it back again
So whatever you want im passed yours
We donâ€™t wanna hear that just fast forward
Roll up to the club and walk through the back door Just to throw away the money I worked my ass for I gave this girl the world, I guess she couldnâ€™t cash in
I loved her so much, I mean loved her thatâ€™s past tense
Shit back then Brad Miller ass, let's see if you ever make it to the all-stars again
Nothing is ever over it just all starts again
Good Luck, Good Luck it's tatted on all my friends

{Chorus}

I know there's things you have to say but you just waited way to late
But it all worked out for me, But it all worked out for me
P.S I'm Sorry
Look at what you made never thought it would work out this way
But it all worked out for me, But it all worked out for me
P.S I'm Sorry
