All your worries speak to me
But they're nonconvincing.
All your troubles expect me
To be the one to sympathize.
All that I can do is be understanding.
Sometimes my eyes won't let me see
Just what you want me to.
There's nothing I can do.
There's something about me
It isn't what you had in mind
There's something about me ...
There's something about me
It isn't what you had in mind
There's something about me ...
All we have in life are worries.
Is it so bad to see them gone?
Just admit, at times you wonder
When can i start having fun?
Can i start having fun?
There's something about me
It isn't what you had in mind
There's something about me ...
There's something about me
It isn't what you had in mind
There's something about me ...
solo
There's something about me
It isn't what you had in mind
There's something about me ...
There's something about me
It isn't what you had in mind
There's something about me ...
