When burdens seem to overcome, there's a higher power
Who's able and refuses none, there's a higher power
Then why ask men to help you through, there's a higher power
They're helpless pilgrims just like you, there's a higher power

So sing and shout, walk and talk, there's a higher power
Lay down your soul, let Jesus fall, there's a higher power
Amen, Amen, there's a higher power
Amen, Amen, there's a higher power

Oh go tell people lost in sin there's a higher power
They need not fear the works of men, there's a higher power
Believe in Him to rest on high, there's a higher power
Unless they do they'll surely die, there's a higher power

So sing and shout, walk and talk, there's a higher power
Lay down your soul, let Jesus fall, there's a higher power
Amen, Amen, there's a higher power
Amen, Amen, there's a higher power

These men have made these mighty guns, there's a higher power
They build automobiles and run, there's a higher power
The brothers and sisters mark this down, there's a higher power
They can't get you no heavenly bound, there's a higher power

So sing and shout, walk and talk, there's a higher power
Lay down your soul, let Jesus fall, there's a higher power
Amen, Amen, there's a higher power
Amen, Amen, there's a higher power

Amen, Amen, there's a higher power
Amen, Amen, there's a higher power
