These things that you promised for certain will you forget them when I'm out of sight Or will you really be here tomorrow to do what you promised tonight
I'm afraid you might find it too easy to make a promise when you're holdin' me tight
So I wonder will you be here tomorrow to do what you
promised tonight
It's easy to do the wrong things some time Cause some time the wrong things seem right
promised tonight
[organ]
It's easy to do the wrong...
