Barenaked in your sweet perfume
Your body shines under that mellow light
Everybody is waiting for your novelties
They stay in line for you to play the game

Everybody wants you, everybody needs you,
you just never change
I don't want to wait for California in the rain.

It's hard to see giving yourself away
Answer is never no when you're a slut
You never realize how low you get
When everybody takes a piece of you

Everybody wants you, everybody needs you,
you just never change
I don't want to wait for California in the rain
