Hey now, there's nothing to say
Hey ha, theyâ€™re all going west
For the good times
Good times ahead

Hey now, their minds running free
Hey ha, it's time for a trip
Through the road sun
Sunlight ahead

They're all dancing in the rain
Get in the mud now
They're all hoping for today
Will get a sunrise

Hey now, welcome the night
Hey ha, the faces arise
In the bonfire
Now seize the day

Hey now, clean up the soul
Hey ha, it's time that we roll
Up the good times
Good times ahead
