The world around is dying
And people smiles are fake
The more I learn about it
The more I suffocate
I just can't stand this hatred
That fills the air I breathe
Too many lives are wasted
Our faith has been deceived

And now it's over
we'll change the world today
If you think this is pointless
Then don't stand in our way (x2)

Too many times
We were standing alone
We're still alive
We made it on our own
And we will fight
For things that we believe
So hold on tight
This war won't be reprieved

And now it's over
we'll change the world today
If you think this is pointless
Then don't stand in our way (x2)

This is the end of everything you knew we will amend the worst inside of you
