Country, Country

Verse 1

When you see cowboy boots and farmers' tans
And the blue collar shirts of the working man
You know you're in Country, Country

Verse 2

When the juke box and whiskey both pour out Strait
And you spend more time fishin' than you do with your mate
You know you're in Country, Country

Chorus

You're in Country, Country
When everyone at the bar
Drinks from mason jars
And wear's old dungarees
And when you hear a pedal steel guitar
And that screaming fiddle you know you are
In Country, Country

Verse 3

When God Bless America is tattooed under your sleeves
And there's a deer head at the entrance to the Tastee Freez
You know you're in Country, Country

Verse 4

When the national anthems on the top ten chart
And everyone drives an F-One Fifty to the local Walmart
You know you're in Country, Country

Chorus

Verse 5

And when you drive to the prom on a John Deere tractor
And there's a ring on your pocket from a can of Skoal tobacco
You know you're in Country, Country

Verse 6

And when you see lots of silos, but no Pottery Barns
And youâ€™ve spent some time down on Booneâ€™s
Farm
You know youâ€™re in Country, Country

Chorus

Chorus

Tag

Yea thatâ€™s when you know youâ€™re in Country,
Country
