Oh I know that I'm the one to blame
For sitting and watching the world unchanged
I wake up, eat meat, have sex, go to sleep
My lord I forgot to think again
You just watch my world will turn around
Someone will walk in, someone will undrown me
Allow me to really be myself, fully take charge
Cradle me with love and leave my past at large

CHORUS

We'll break these chains and untie these wings
All I wanna do is sing
Break these chains and untie these wings
All I wanna do is sing
For my future, and the sights that I'm about to see
Screaming with nature in perfect harmony
So wish me good luck and hold back those tears
If you want to get stronger you gotta face your fears

So I look what's ahead, trying to forget the behind
Memories of you are plagued in my mind
I scour the world, searching for love
But find, that I gotta love myself
Before someone else does

I'm so lost, lost, lost
In the light, light, light
Makes no damn difference
How hard I fight
You've stayed in my mind
And I realize
That I'd already found
What I'd set out to find
