I can't believe no one leaves me
With faded face, and bloodshot eyes
I'm just lost in the seas man
As I waste away, with music in my veins

All my life i've run
Memories I've lost
Leave me now to my stupour
I'll find a way back home
When I want to go

I know everything's right
With the blazing fire, behind my back
This never ending thirst
Won't be the end of me, but it hurts

All my life i've run
Memories I've lost
Leave me now to my stupour
I'll find a way back home
When I want to go

All my life i've run
Memories I've lost
Leave me now to my stupour
I'll find a way back home
When I want to go
I'll find a way back home
When I want to go
I'll find a way back home
When I want to go
