You will find, that there's more to life, than you've let
In
You ride the tide, and forces collide, as it all begins
Just hold up your hands, without a lie, you can touch the Sky
'Cause tonight's the night that your gonna fly, you won't
Ask me why
So don't "ever say your mine"
I'll be waitin' for you, just "waitin'" for the end of
Time"
I'm through with your games, it's "all on me tonight"
And your love, will hold me higher
That song I hear, dissolves my fear, with much desire
I know the reason, I hear you're leavin', just put out the Fire
Did you ever think, could be all your fault, right from The start
You've been breakin' my heart, I can't feel a thing.
So don't "ever say your mine"
I'll be waitin' for you, just "waitin'" for the end of
Time"
I'm through with your games, it's "all on me tonight"
And your love, will hold me higher
Yes, your love will hold me higher
Yes, it's your love that holds me higher
Your love holds me higher
Yes, it's your love that holds me
